

Challenge the Alps - September 11th-15th 2012

Applying the power of stories and myths in therapy and conflict management. A five-day course in Mythodrama.

In this unique course psychologist and psychotherapist, who are working with this approach called Mythodrama, will pass on their experiences to you. Apart from learning about the method, you will listen archetypal stories and learn the art of story telling. The course includes an introduction into the unknown world of the alpine myths, which still influence people in alpine regions nowadays. The course will be held in the romantic city of Bern and the Swiss Alps.

The course leaders include:

Allan Guggenbühl, Prof. Dr, author, Mythodrama-Therapist and founder of Mythodrama as a group intervention, worldwide acknowledged Expert in group therapy and conflict management.

Lela Schmid, Dr, Mythodrama-Therapist, Andrea Munz, MA, Mythodrama-Therapist and expert in vocational training.

The course is open to psychologist, psychotherapist and people working in social services or conflict management. Course language: English, Japanese.

Further information: Mail to info@ikm.ch or visit www.ikm.ch or www.mythodrama.com

Price: 1900 CHF or 2000 USD

Course organized by the Swiss Mythodrama Association